

Abhijit Dubey joins Roper Technologies Board of Directors

October 1, 2026

SARASOTA, Fla., Oct. 01, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Roper Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: ROP) announced that Abhijit Dubey has joined the Company's Board of Directors.

Mr. Dubey is Chief Executive Officer and Chief AI Officer of NTT DATA, Inc., a global business and technology services company. He also serves as a Director of NTT DATA Group Corporation, the publicly listed parent company of NTT DATA, Inc. In his current role, Mr. Dubey leads NTT DATA's strategy, growth, and operating performance, as well as the company's enterprise-wide AI strategy and its transformation toward an AI-native operating model.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Dubey served as Chairman and Global Chief Executive Officer of NTT Ltd. Before joining NTT, he spent more than 20 years at McKinsey & Company, including as a Senior Partner, where he was a core leader of the firm's global Technology, Media, and Telecommunications Practice and founded McKinsey's cloud computing practice.

"Abhijit's experience leading a large, global technology organization through an AI-driven transformation makes him a great fit for our Board," said Neil Hunn, Roper Technologies' President and CEO. "His perspective on enterprise software, AI adoption, and scaling technology businesses globally will be a valuable addition as we continue to grow our portfolio of vertical market software and technology enabled product businesses."

"Abhijit brings a rare combination of large-scale operating experience with technology and AI leadership to our Board," said Amy Woods Brinkley, Roper Technologies' Board Chair. "We are confident that his background will support Roper's governance as we continue to execute on our long-term strategy."
